CCSA Prop. 39 Resources Available

This school year's Prop. 39 cycle is already underway. CCSA offers a wide range of resources to assist member schools with request facilities under Prop. 39. We encourage you to take advantage of the following resources:

- Pro Bono Review Program: CCSA has partnered with experienced law firms to provide free legal help to CCSA members with Prop 39 requests. Assistance includes review of your Prop 39 request and subsequent correspondence with your district. To receive legal support, you must submit your draft Prop 39 request to CCSAProp39@ccsa.org by October 13, 2017. {Please also note that we have implemented changes to the Pro Bono Review Program for this Prop 39 cycle that may impact the ability of your school to participate. For additional information regarding these changes, please email CCSAProp39@ccsa.org.}
- General information about the Prop. 39 requirements, eligibility criteria, and request process.
- On demand training video: "Acquiring Facilities Under Prop. 39"
- Template Request Form and Instructions

Please send any inquiries regarding CCSA's Prop. 39 resources to CCSAProp39@ccsa.org, or to Ebony Wheaton, Director of Facilities, at ewheaton@ccsa.org.

California's non-profit charter public schools are helping all students unlock their full academic potential. Learn how charter schools are using their flexibility to give students the education they are promised in CCSA's 2017 Portrait of the Movement report. Charter schools are tuition free, accept all students, and do not earn profits.
